

Benjamin Byram

Benjamin Byram is an LA born and raised music producer and songwriter. Raised by musicians and creators, Benjamin has been a part of the music industry his whole life starting as a young child singing on feature films such as Peter Pan (2003), Christmas with the Kranks, Disney's High School Musical 2 & 3, and Camp Rock 1 & 2, and Studio Ghibli's From Up On Poppy Hill as well as major record releases such as The All American Rejects' "Move Along" and Guns N' Roses' "Chinese Democracy".

Benjamin graduated with a BA in Music Industry Studies from Cal State Northridge (CSUN) after serving as the co-executive producer of CSUN's student run record label Five of Five Music Entertainment as well as their GRAMMY U campus ambassador for 2 years. During the later portion of his education and after, Benjamin worked at legendary LA studio The Village

Recorder during the recording of major albums such as Coldplay's "Ghost Stories".

Benjamin produced a remix for pop star Kimbra of her single "Settle Down" that was then released by Warner Music Group and has also done production work for close friend Ben Hardesty, lead singer of the band The Last Bison previously signed with Universal Republic Records. With a versatile yet bold sound in the pop and urban music genres Benjamin has been doing production and engineering work for major artists and songwriters including Fetty Wap, King Mez, LunchMoney Lewis and many more.