

Jonathan Byram

Jonathan Byram began his music and film career at a young age. His movie credits include Hairspray with John Travolta, High School Musical 1&3 for Disney, and most recently, Jurassic World with Chris Pratt.

Jonathan has recorded and worked with many top artists including Adele on the Academy Awards and Josh Groban on his album Stages.

As a film composer, Jonathan has scored numerous films with several winning awards at film festivals around the country. He is currently writing songs for a new animated feature length film titled "Otto."

He has orchestrated and arranged music for several notable groups and recording artists including Anna Nalick on her follow up album to her mega hit "Breathe (2 A.M.)", the Los Angeles Jewish Symphony Orchestra, and the BIOLA University Symphony Orchestra. His chamber music works include "Immersion", a commission by the Los Angeles Idealist Network to commemorate the 9/11 tragedy, and his original underscores for "The Hasty Heart" and a modern-industrial interpretation of Shakespeare's "Romeo and Juliet" won critical acclaim for live theater.

Jonathan serves as choir director at Reality LA Church in Hollywood and for Village Christian School in Sun Valley, CA. He is also currently the Music Director and a songwriter for "O Little Town of Bloomington" to premiere Christmas 2016 at Harvest Rock Church in Pasadena, CA.
